Dear Inspire Families,

I would like to take this opportunity to offer my apologies for the confusion surrounding new enrichment guidelines. Although well intended, my misstep was to rush the implementation of our new policies without giving enough time to the process. I am truly sorry.

Having said that, the good news is that any orders placed by our families prior to August 1, 2019, will be processed under the old enrichment guidelines. This includes any orders for paperback books, which will be processed as consumable items.

A complete copy of the Enrichment Guidelines will be available for families next week in the Enrichment Ordering System.

Some notable changes that will go into effect on August 1, 2019, are as follows:

(3.5) What are the Non-Consumable Category Groups for Inspire Charter Schools?

- Textbooks, hardcover or paperback books (excluding workbooks)

(4.2) Examples of Unacceptable Items will now also include:

- Dinner theater productions
- Season passes or annual memberships (YMCA Student-Family Memberships are the one exception)
- Chaperone tickets or passes for any non-teacher planned /non-teacher led sponsored field trips or events
- Out-of-state field trip destinations and service vendors

Please note that these changes are not for legal reasons, but for political and/or public perception and are consistent with the common practices of independent study charter schools throughout the state.

Some more good news!

This school year's theme is The Adventure of Learning, focusing on our teacher-planned/led field trips. With these field trips, families are provided with their chaperone tickets at no cost. Inspire will provide 1 chaperone ticket for every 2 students in a family.
